Our college conducting the following awareness programs to the students and staff.

Conducting orientation sessions: Our College is conducting sessions in collaboration with the Police Department to explain the anti-ragging policies and consequences of violating them to new students, faculty, and staff.

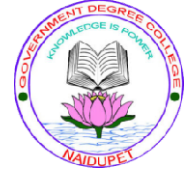

Displaying posters and banners: our college displaying posters and banners at prominent locations on campus to raise awareness about anti-ragging policies.

Complaint mechanism: Our College have an effective complaint mechanism in place to encourage victims to report incidents of ragging. The complaint mechanism should be easily accessible and confidential.

In conclusion, our college ensures that all stakeholders are aware of the anti-ragging policies and the consequences of violating them. Our college implement measures such as conducting orientation sessions, displaying posters, and conducting regular training programs to raise awareness about anti-ragging policies. A zero-tolerance policy towards ragging and an effective complaint mechanism can further strengthen the implementation of anti-ragging policies.

Dear Students,

We are pleased to announce that our institution and the Women Empowerment Cell will be conducting an awareness program on Women's Respect and Sexual Harassment by Smt. Ramya, Pellakur, Sub Inspector (SI). We believe that it is crucial for everyone to have a deep understanding of this important topic, and we encourage all students to participate.

The aim of this program is to create awareness about women's rights, respect, and safety. The program will cover a variety of topics, including but not limited to, gender-based violence, consent, and sexual harassment. Through this program, we hope to empower our students with the knowledge and tools they need to promote gender equality and to prevent sexual harassment and violence.

The program will take place on 01-02-2020 at 12:00PM in room No:5 Seminar Hall. We encourage all students to attend this important event. The program will consist of informative sessions, interactive workshops, and group discussions. It will be led by experts in the field, who will share their knowledge and experiences to help us understand the importance of respecting women and addressing sexual harassment.

We hope that you will join us in this important initiative to promote women's respect and safety. Let us work together to create a more inclusive and respectful community.

Thank you.
