To the staff, welcome back to the college we want where we live the values of the College of GDC NAIDUPET, where we all are at a highly functioning successful college and a place that we are all proud of, this would be the essence and ethos of the college we want. A college that supports each other and encourages growth and self-enrichment. A college which embraces each other’s diversity and encourages innovation for the improvement of the college and the students it serves. I wish to salute all our staff for their tireless commitment to the STUDENTS to ensure that each one of them who leaves the college will make a success of their lives.
